

Restaurant Supervisor

About us

The Red Door is a 4 star country house in Fahan, Inishowen, Co. Donegal. Facilities include a 110 seater award-winning restaurant, four luxurious en-suite bedrooms, a bar and meeting space.

Overlooking Lough Swilly and Inch Island, it is a popular wedding venue, and we are looking forward to a busy wedding schedule in 2012 and 2013.

About the role

You will be responsible for:

Inducting restaurant and bar staff and ensuring adequate skilled staff levels are maintained

Ensuring correct operation, balancing of cash registers and daily reporting

Organising reservations and greeting visitors

Delivering excellent customer service at all times

Taking orders and serving food and drinks, quickly and efficiently, with a smile

Maintaining high standards of presentation throughout the premises

Keeping up to date with upcoming events and offers and making staff and customers aware of these

Working closely with the senior management team

About you

You will have at least two years supervising experience in a similar environment.

We would really like you to have a good knowledge and passion for wines.

We expect you to be well-organised with excellent delegation skills.

Your professionalism, attention to detail and passion for the hospitality are what will set you apart from other well-experienced applicants.
